any disclosure, reproduction or transmission to unauthorized parties without the prior written permission of XTrade International Ltd is prohibited

Please take sufficient time to read this Client Agreement as well as any other additional documentation and information available to you via our Website (www.xtrade.com) prior to opening an account and/or carrying out any activity with us. You should contact us for any further clarification, or seek independent professional advice, if necessary.

Xtrade International Ltd does not issue advice, recommendations or opinions in relation to acquiring, holding or disposing of any financial product. Xtrade International Ltd is not a financial, legal, tax or regulatory adviser.

Risk Warning: Contracts for difference ('CFDs') is a complex financial product, which is highly speculative, the trading of which involves significant risks of loss of capital. Trading CFDs, which is a leveraged product, may result in the loss of your entire balance. Remember that leverage in CFDs can magnify your profits as well as your losses. You should not deposit more than you are prepared to lose. You should ensure you fully understand the risks involved before entering into an agreement and start using the Trading Platform. Please ensure that you fully understand our risk warnings available within our Risk Disclosure and Warnings Statement in the Website.

Xtrade International Ltd (www.xtrade.com) is regulated by the Financial Services Commission of Belize with License Number 4705379.

- The website and/or the services and/or the products of Xtrade International Ltd are NOT intended to be used by residents of certain jurisdictions such as the Member States of the USA, British Columbia, Canada, Iran, North Korea, Myanmar, Russia and some other regions.

The Agreement is entered by and between Xtrade International Ltd

(hereinafter called the "Company", or "we" or "us") on the one part and the Client (which may be a legal entity or a natural person) who has completed the Account Opening Application Form and has been accepted by the Company as a Client ("Client" or "you" or "your") on the other part.

The Company is regulated and authorized by the Financial Services Commission of Belize. The Company is registered in Belize, with registration number 000007984. The Company's registered address is at 54 Queen Street, Suite 301, Belize City, Belize.

This Client Agreement together with its Appendices and "the Risk Disclosure and Warnings Notice", applicable "Bonus Terms and Conditions" and "General Fees" found on the Website (together the "Agreement"), as amended from time to time, set out the terms upon which the Company will offer Services to the Client and shall govern the relationship between the Parties. By applying to the Company to open a Trading Account the Client accepts the terms and conditions of the Agreement.

These terms and conditions (the "Terms") set out the terms of the contract between you and us for the provision of our Services. In particular, the Terms govern each Position you open or close out with us.

A current and definitive copy of these Terms (as amended, restated or supplemented from time to time) will be available to you on our website. Trading in our Products is not appropriate for everyone. We consider that our Products should only be traded by a person who: (i) has the ability to bear a 100% loss of all funds invested, and (ii) has a high-risk tolerance.

Risks

The value of the underlying financial instruments, to which you gain an exposure through a CFD or another Product, may fluctuate. You should make sure you understand the risks involved in trading our Products and that you take appropriate independent advice where necessary.

Our Products are leveraged and therefore carry a higher degree of risk than investing directly in the underlying financial instrument (such as regular share trading). Our Products may not be suitable for every client. A further detailed explanation of the risks associated with trading our Products is set out in our Risk Warning Disclosure.

The trading of our Products does not give you a right to the underlying financial instrument, because a CFD represents a notional value. For example, where the Product is a share CFD you do not have an interest in the underlying share, nor does the CFD grant you a right of ownership in the underlying share.

The trading you conduct with us is not conducted on an exchange or a Market. We act as counterparty to a Position, and as such your Positions are notional and may not be transferred.

You are responsible for your decisions.

We provide an execution-only service. We do not, and we will not, provide advice or management in relation to a Position, your portfolio or your trading strategy. You must rely on your own judgement or discretion (or that of an independent third-party advisor or consultant) in deciding whether or not to open or close out a Position.

You must act only for yourself (as principal) and not on behalf of others.

We will deal with you on the basis that you act as principal and not as agent for an undisclosed person. This means that we will treat you as our client and the money in your account as your money, for all purposes, and you will be directly and personally responsible for performing your obligations under each Position you open or close out.

If you act in connection with or on behalf of someone else, whether or not you identify that person to us, we will not accept that person as an indirect customer of ours and we will not accept or owe an obligation to them. Furthermore, if another person operates your account on your behalf, we may terminate these Terms or close any open Positions, without prior notice.

Complaints

We take complaints very seriously and have in place internal procedures to ensure that a complaint is dealt with promptly and fairly. If you would like to make a complaint, please contact us in writing through the communication methods set out below to raise your complaint. We will aim to investigate and resolve your complaint to the best of our ability within forty days. Details of our complaint procedure can be found on our Website.

We shall carry out an Order only when the relevant Market or Underlying Market is open for dealing, and we shall deal with an Order received outside Market or Underlying Market hours as soon as practicable, when that relevant Market or Underlying Market is next open for business (in accordance with the rules of that Market or Underlying Market). On occasion, this may result in you obtaining a less favorable price once your Order has been executed. You acknowledge and agree that we will not be liable to you as a result of such less favorable price being obtained.

3.6.2 Aggregation of an Order: We reserve the right to aggregate your Order with Orders placed by other clients. Aggregation means that we may combine your Order with those of other clients for execution as a single Order. (a) the person who provided such an Order or instruction was acting in excess of their authority;
(b) acting upon such an Order or instruction would infringe upon Applicable Regulations, our Policies or these Terms; or

(c) in the event that we have accepted an Order that we later suspect falls within sections (a) or (b) of this clause, we may, in our absolute discretion, either close out such Positions at the then prevailing price quoted on the Platform or treat that Position as having been void from the outset.

3.7.4 Nothing in this clause 3.7(Authority) will be construed as an obligation on our part to inquire about the authority of a person who purports to represent you.

3.8 Control of an Order

We have the right to, at our discretion, set a limit or a parameter to control your ability to place an Order or to give instructions. Such limit or parameter may be amended, increased, decreased, removed or added, and may include:

Such actions will be binding on you.

If a Market or an Underlying Market makes an enquiry in respect of you, an Authorized Third Party, or a Position, you agree to co-operate with us and to promptly supply the information requested, taking into account Applicable Regulations.

3.12 Governmental, regulatory and law enforcement Action

If a governmental, inter-governmental or supranational body, agency, department or regulatory, self-regulatory or other authority or organization anywhere in the world takes an action which affects our relationship with you or a Position, then we may take such action, which we in our discretion, consider necessary.

3.14 Market Abuse and Conduct

You warrant, represent and undertake that you are aware of, and understand the, Applicable Regulations relating to Market Abuse. You acknowledge and agree that we may monitor your Orders, and that we have a legal obligation to make certain reports to the relevant authorities, and to supply information to them about you and your Positions.

You agree that we will have no liability to you in respect of any liabilities to the extent that they arise out of, or in connection with, our compliance in good faith with the requirements of the applicable anti-money laundering legislation, as varied or amended from time to time, or any other statutory provisions.

3.16 Inactive Accounts

3.16.1 We consider an Account to be dormant or inactive when: (i) there have been no open Positions on the Account for a period of 1 year, (ii) there has been no update in your data or personal information for a period of 1 year; or (iii) as otherwise required by Applicable Regulations.

3.16.3 You may reactivate your Account by contacting us and following the steps advised to you. If you do not wish to activate your Account, you can contact us to close your Account and the relevant provisions of 0 (Event of default and termination) will apply to your termination of these Terms and closure of your Account.

EQUITY, MARGIN AND LEVERAGE

4.1 Equity, Margin and Free Margin

4.1.1 The balance of your Account is the sum of money in your Account which comprises of realized profit or loss, as the case may be (the “Balance”). For the avoidance of doubt, profit or loss becomes realized in the Account once an open Position is closed. The equity of your account is the total of the (i) Balance and (ii) unrealized (floating) profit or loss, as the case may be, on your open Positions (the “Equity”).

4.1.2 Margin means the portion of your Equity that is utilized to open one or more Positions (the “Margin”). For the avoidance of doubt, Margin is not deducted from the calculation of your Equity.

4.1.3 Margin can neither be used to open another Position nor be withdrawn from your Account.

4.1.4 The portion of your Equity that is not Margin is free margin (the “Free Margin”). Free Margin may be used to open another Position or can be withdrawn from your Account.

4.1.5 You agree to maintain at all times, without demand from us, Margin requirements for the Positions in your Account. You agree that we are entitled to determine the Margin requirements in our sole and absolute discretion. In setting your Margin requirements, we take into consideration multiple factors including Applicable Regulations, your Equity, your Balance, your trading history and patterns, your trading style, your trading experience, the potential volatility of the Products you are trading, the historical volatility of the Products you are trading, etc. Our determination of your Margin requirements shall be conclusive.

4.2 Margin Calls and Auto Stop-Out

4.2.1 If the Equity falls below an amount that equals to one hundred percent of your Margin, your Account will enter into a margin call (the “Margin Call”).

4.2.2 If your Equity falls to or below an amount that equals to thirty percent (or such other percentage as prescribed by us from time to time) of your Margin, an auto-stop-out will occur, whereby some or all of your open Positions will automatically be closed out by the automated risk management system, in order to bring your Equity above the required amount (the “Auto StopOut”). We do not discretionarily manage your portfolio. The automated risk management system may automatically first close out the open Positions that carry the greatest loss. The automated risk management system may then close out such number of additional open Positions successively until the Equity in your Account is above the required amount. You should be prepared for the automated risk management system to close out all your open Positions.

4.2.3 In the event of a Margin Call, you may, in order to bring your Equity above your Margin:

- (a) close one or more of your open Positions;
- (b) deposit funds in your Account; or
- (c) a combination of both.

4.2.4 Provided that you have not opted out of receiving systematic emails, and in the absence of any system errors or malfunctions, we will inform you of a Margin Call immediately. Nonetheless, you agree and acknowledge that it is your responsibility to monitor your Account and always that you maintain sufficient Equity to meet your Margin requirements at all times. You understand and agree that your only Free Margin will be available to you. You undertake that you will maintain in your Account, at all times, sufficient Margin to meet your Margin requirements. If you believe that you cannot or will not be able to meet your Margin requirements, you should reduce your open Positions or transfer adequate Margin to your Account to satisfy your Margin requirements. You may access details of Margin amounts which are paid by you or due to us through the Platform.

4.3 Leverage

4.3.1 Leverage is a mechanism through which you are able to open a Position for a value that is higher than the amount of Margin. As our Products are leveraged, Margin funds only part of the Position and we finance the remainder.

4.3.2 Leverage is expressed as a ratio such as 1:50, 1:100, 1:150, 1:200, 1:300. The higher ratio of leverage you use, the less Margin you need to open a Position, in proportion to the notional value of the Position. What this may mean for you is that for a Product that is leveraged at a 200:1 ratio, you may open a Position with a notional value of USD 1,000 using USD 5 as the Margin.

4.3.3 The amount of Margin is calculated with reference to a percentage of the notional value of an open Position. We determine the percentage of the notional value that is required as Margin by an underlying instrument, and we may change the percentage from time to time at our discretion, which we will notify to you in accordance with Applicable Regulations.

4.3.4 We reserve the right to change the leverage of a Product or Account, from time to time, at our discretion. We will endeavor to provide you with reasonable notice of such change, where practicable. It is your responsibility to monitor for changes to the leverage, which may occur due to:

- (a) a change in prevailing Market conditions;
- (b) an actual or potential event of default or termination event;
- (c) a risk assessment; or
- (d) increased market volatility.
